Clothing Allowance Policy

Policy Statement

Part VII of The Occupational Health and Safety, 1996 Regulations under The Saskatchewan Employment Act requires an employer to ensure that every worker wears or uses suitable and adequate personal protective equipment. An employer shall provide approved protective equipment to the workers at no cost to the worker.

The Rural Municipality of Antelope Park No. 322 is committed to ensuring that all employees use personal protective equipment to do their job safely.

Purpose

To protect the employees of the Rural Municipality of Antelope Park No. 322 from occupational hazards within the workplace by providing personal protective equipment (PPE).

Application

1. Footwear and safety clothing, including CSA approved steel toed boots, are required.
2. All road maintenance and public works employees shall be provided by the Rural Municipality of Antelope Park No. 322 the following clothing, which is to be worn while performing municipal duties:
 - Safety Vests
 - Safety Glasses (non-prescription)
 - Gloves
 - Ear Plugs
3. The RM of Antelope Park No. 322 will reimburse road maintenance and public works employees for the purchase of CSA approved steel-toed boots and safety clothing up to a maximum of $500.00 every calendar year for year-round employees and $300.00 per calendar year for seasonal employees upon submission of a valid receipt.
4. All municipal-issued PPE will conform to OH&S requirements.

5. All PEE used will be in good condition and maintained according to the manufacturer's instructions.
6. No piece of PPE will be modified or changed contrary to the manufacturer's instructions, specifications, or OH&S regulations.
